

Authorization for Disclosure

Pines Presbyterian Preschool is committed to protecting the privacy and safety of all children. There are times when teachers and administrators feel it is appropriate to recognize students and their work in a public forum. Examples of such recognition include publishing pictures on the website, exhibiting student art work, and inviting local media to report on special school events. In order for your child to be included, we need your permission to disclose your child's photograph, name, voice, and/or school work. Pines endeavors to take every precaution to ensure that such disclosure is limited to appropriate school related events.
